

Disclosures:

Content: this presentation focuses on the effects of tongue tie from breastfeeding to table foods. It provides clinical applications for the professional working with breastfeeding infants.

Financial: Ellen M. Carlin M.S.CCC-SLP, IBCLC is the owner of Carlin Speech Pathology & Associates, Inc. and receives a salary and speaking fees for presenting continuing education courses. Lunch is on your own or may be ordered ahead of time and brought in.

Nonfinancial: Ellen M. Carlin M.S.CCC-SLP, IBCLC provides a monthly breastfeeding support group together with Houston area lactation consultants of HALCEA. This support group is free to parents of infants with tethered oral tissue who have received frenotomies and are working toward breastfeeding goal or parents of infants with oral motor dysfunction working toward breastfeeding goals. This monthly 2 hour group is provided for mommies and babies enrolled in feeding therapy at Carlin Speech Pathology & Associates, Inc.

Disclaimer: Carlin Speech Pathology & Associates does not endorse the use of any product shown during the course. All products shown during this course are for educational purposes only. All attendees are cautioned to practice within their legal and ethical scope of practice.